New Location!

Let's Quilt Retreat - Weaverville, CA

This town is located in the timber area just west of Redding. The town is small and has a charm all its own. The retreat is being held at a new location a quilting studio called The Blue Door, owned by a local quilter. I'm thrilled to have this opportunity to present a retreat there, I know you'll all enjoy the room without all the drama that was in the former location. You are responsible for your own lodging, I would suggest you use the 49er Motel which has new owners and are renovating it as we speak. At this retreat, you will have your own 4ft table, ironing and cutting stations are available to use. There is a full kitchen and plenty of parking. The building is located downtown on Hwy 3. I can only take 15 people, a waiting list will be kept

Let's Quilt Retreat - Harmony Ridge, CA

Harmony Ridge Lodge B & B is the name of the newest retreat facility I'm using. It's in the timber area on Hwy 20 just east of Nevada City. It's in tall timber, quiet, a little bit of paradise to say the least. The Lodge and grounds are beautiful. Events are held here year round, so I'm feeling lucky that they have a spot for us. I've worked here for the past 8 or so years, teaching for private groups, and I know you'll enjoy it as much as I do (2 quilters come 3 times a year). Each bedroom has its own feeling, spacious and some rooms will have multiple beds. I will assign the rooms according to the wishes and the order I receive the registrations basically it's first come first served. The Lodge will give us a nice breakfast, you'll get one lunch and one dinner from me. The sewing will be held in the new event center just across from your rooms. I know if you sign up you're going to enjoy it it's beautiful, peaceful and we're back to nature with quilting being involved. Please come and be part of this new venture you won't be sorry!

or all retreats... if you must cancel, you will receive a refund (minus $30.00 processing fee) if I'm given 30 days notice.
